Old Business

Minutes - A motion was made by Cami Mitchell to approve the minutes from the April Booster Meeting with a second by Jen Tindell. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Financial Report – David Lowrance reported that as of 5/2/2019 the program overspent by $630.00. $37,000 in the Bank account, ($20,000 of that in uniform fund), $17,000 in operating funds, $13,000 in unpaid fees. Received the check from USBands for Finley competition on 5/7/19 for $3,500. Also as of 5/7/2019 one Senior Band member has outstanding fees. Motion to accept the Treasurer's Report by Amber Perkins, second by Christ Randolph. Motion carried.

New Business

Calendar and Website – Mr. Light covered various upcoming Calendar items like Drum Major, Picnic, and camps. Visit the Band website for updated Calendar information.

County Financial Meeting – Mr. Light shared more information about the financial reporting changes required by TN Law. The County is in the process of writing a Music Organization Operating Manual. More information on all of these changes will be provided as it is received.

Miscellaneous Items – We possibly have sold more Colorguard flags, and the Armed Forces Parade Band consisted of nine total schools. The Band Spring Concert and Silent Auction is May 9 at 7pm. All items for baskets must be turned in by April 26. Wrapping of baskets will be May 1.

Concert and Silent Auction - Tammy Baxter spoke about the needs for the Concert and Silent Auction.

Band Picnic – Details of the Picnic on May 16th were discussed. Leadership Team will be announced as will the Marching Show for 2019/2020.

Videographer desired – Mr. Light showed a Band's recruitment video to demonstrate how he would like to have one made for the SDHS Band. Anyone who is a videographer or knows of one should contact Mr. Light with the information. A full year of collecting video is probably needed to cover the entire Band program.

Adjournment

Motion made by David Lowrance to adjourn the meeting, second by Jen Tindell. Meeting adjourned at 8:00pm.
