Old Business

Minutes - A motion was made by Lyndsey Coleman to approve the minutes from the October 8 Booster Meeting with a second by Crystal Randolph. Motion carried.

Treasurer’s Financial Report – David Lowrance reported over $10,000 from SnapRaise, now approximately $20,000 in the Uniform Fund. Staff expenses are coming up and he is still working on reconciling the Lookouts work events and getting the money in to the applicable accounts. Motion to accept the Treasurer’s Report by Cami Mitchell, second by Stephanie Ott. Motion carried.

New Business

Playoff Game – Friday, November 2 at 7pm. Anyone working this game must have their name on the approved TSSAA Pass List and be prepared to show their ID upon arrival. Ticket prices are $8. The Band will perform their full show at halftime. This is an extra Concession moneymaking opportunity for the Band.

Southern States Championship – The contest is at Finley Stadium Saturday, November 3. The bulk of the meeting was spent on discussing the details of the Band working the competition and answering questions.

Calendar – Mr. Light covered some other items coming up. Middle School Christmas Concerts and the SDHS Christmas Concert. Soddy Daisy annual Christmas Parade.

Coke Sale and Fruit/Cheese Sale - Currently underway, everyone should have their paperwork.
